EVENT LOBBY

The screenshot displays the Machik Fest 2021 Lobby landing page. On the left, a red sidebar contains the user's profile (Kim Kaston) and navigation links: Lobby, Sessions, Speakers, Networking, Account, Help, and Logout. The main content area features a grid of participant avatars, a 'No Announcements' banner with a megaphone icon, and a chat window on the right with a message: 'No one has started chatting here yet. Leave a message to be the first!'. The bottom of the screen has a 'Private Chats' button and a 'Powered by PHEEDLOOP' logo.

- You're now on the Machik Fest 2021 Lobby landing page.
- Your primary navigation is on the left side, and chat features on the right side.
- The Chat is accessible to everyone, so please be mindful of what you using that feature.
- When there are announcements from the Machik team, they will appear right under the main lobby banner.

SPEAKERS

The screenshot shows the Machik Fest 2021 website interface. On the left is a dark red navigation sidebar with the user's name 'Kim Kaston' and icons for Lobby, Sessions, Speakers (highlighted), Networking, Account, Help, and Logout. At the bottom of the sidebar is the 'POWERED BY PHEEDLOOP' logo. The main content area has a white background with the Machik Fest 2021 logo in the top left. A search bar and a 'Filters' dropdown are at the top. Below them is a list of speaker profiles, each with a circular profile picture and name: Alex Foote, Chris Walter, Dave Byars, Dekyi Tsotsong, Dr. Arti Pandey, and Dr. Clare Harris. The profile for Alex Foote is expanded, showing a larger circular profile picture, the name 'Alex Foote', a red 'Start Chat' button with a speech bubble icon, and a text box containing her biography. The biography text reads: 'Alex Foote graduated in 2015 from Harvard College with a bachelor's in East Asian Studies, and from London School of Economics and Political Science in 2016 with an MSc in Environment and Development. The past 10 years she's focused on social and environmental issues in China through research and volunteer work. In 2013, she volunteered with Machik's SEP in Tibet. She worked in New York for a China-based recycled paper and pulp manufacturer, managing post-merger integration projects, and recently joined the sustainability department at PepsiCo. She works on blog curation and mentorship programming within NARFA'. In the top right corner of the main area, there are icons for a green status indicator, the number '2', a language icon, a user profile icon, and a red notification bell icon. At the bottom of the main area is a black bar with a white speech bubble icon and the text 'Private Chats'.

- Get to know the speakers of Machik Fest by clicking on the Speakers tab.
- This section provides a listing and short biography for Machik speakers.
- You can easily search for and filter the speakers listing. You can also start a chat with the 'start chat' feature in the speaker profile section after selecting a speaker.
- We're incredibly grateful to each and every one of our speakers for their care and support for the program and community!

The screenshot displays a networking application interface for Machik Fest 2021. On the left is a dark red sidebar with navigation options: Lobby, Sessions, Speakers, Networking (highlighted), Account, Help, and Logout. At the bottom of the sidebar is the Pheedloop logo and the text 'POWERED BY PHEEDLOOP'. The main content area features a top navigation bar with 'MACHIK FEST 2021', 'People' (selected), 'Groups', and 'Matches'. Below this is a search bar and a 'Filters' dropdown. The user profile for Kim Kaston is shown, including her name, pronouns (she/her/hers), role (Volunteer, Machik), and a 'Volunteer' badge. A large red 'Start Chat' button is prominently displayed. A list of other users is visible, including Jordan Campbell, Josh Whiton, Kalsang Pottery, Kim Kaston (self), and Kunga Namgyal, each with a 'Speaker' badge. A 'Private Chats' button is at the bottom.

- Use the Networking page to find people and start individual or group chats. You can use the same search and filter features as on other pages.
